

Guest Program

Arts Class is scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at the Pendleton Center for the Arts located in the downtown area. Staff at the Center for the Arts will have a program prepared for participating guests. Cost: $15 per person

Walla Walla Wine Tour with Lori Fisher Tours is scheduled for all day Thursday leaving at about 8:45 am. Guests will enjoy a leisurely drive along the foothills of the Blue Mountains to the Walla Walla Valley located about 45 minutes north of Pendleton. Guests will have the opportunity to visit several wineries and sample a variety of wines. Lunch is included with this tour and guests will be returning to the Pendleton Convention Center by about 4:30 pm. Cost: $65 per person.

Thai Cooking Class with Kwan is scheduled for Friday morning at the Foundation Room located at Pendleton City Hall Complex. Guests will have the opportunity to cook and enjoy various Thai dishes under the direction of Kwan, who owned and operated Kwan's Thai Restaurant in Pendleton. She now resides in the Tri-Cities and looks forward to this opportunity. Not your typical Real West cuisine, but locals still talk about her and miss her cooking. Cost: $20 per person.

Transportation is provided for our guest program, leaving and returning to the Pendleton Convention Center for all activities.

On-your-own activity ideas if this guest program is not appealing enough: Pendleton Underground & Cozy Rooms, Pendleton Woolen Mills, Heritage Museum, Center for the Arts, Tamastlikt Cultural Institute, Wildhorse Casino, Hamley's Store and Saddlery, Downtown Shopping, Historical Walking Tour, River Walkway, etc. Visit our Chamber of Commerce at the corner of S Main Street & Frazer Avenue for more information.
