

OREGON CHAPTER APWA FALL 2010 TECHNICAL PROGRAM (TENTATIVE, SUBJECT TO CHANGE)

	Track One - Leadership and Management	Track Two - Sustainability	Track Three - Advances in Technology
Wednesday, October 13
2:00-3:00 pm	Port of Umatilla - Role of Transportation and Water Resources in the Region, Kim Puzey, General Manager, Port of Umatilla	Creating Sustainable Solutions, Jo Danko, CH2M Hill	Part I - New Meter Technonogy, Todd Mitchell, United Pipe
3:30-4:30 pm	Managing Change in a Public Organization, John Turner, President, Blue Mountain Community College	Water Wise Garden, Certified Wildlife Habitat, Rainwater Harvestin, and its also called a parking lot, Russ Thomas, City of Newberg	Part 2 - Advanced Meter Infrastructure, Todd Mitchell, United Pipe
Thursday, October 14
9:00-10:00 am	Assessing Organizational Sustainability Using Asset Management Maturity Assessment – Seattle Department of Transportation, Patricia Bugas-Schramm	137 Green Street Facilities in 6 Days, Dave Elkin, Tim Strand GreenWorks, P.C.	3D Laser Scanning: The Creative Way to Achieve Project Success, Marcus Reedy, David Evans and Assoc.
10:30-11:30 am	Vision as a Driving Force for Pendleton, Al Plute, A &amp; G Property Management	How to Fit More Horses in your Stable without Building a Bigger Barn, Jeff Jones, Murray, Smith &amp; Assoc.	Performance Measures for De-icing Products, Steve Bytnar, Envirotech Services
2:00-3:00 pm	Leading Change in Turbulent Times, Jeanne Nyquist, Nyquist and Assoc.	Greenroads in Oregon, Jeralee Anderson, U of Washington	Pervious and Permeable Pavements, Brett I. Kesterson, City of Portland
3:30- 4:30 pm	Being Prepared for FEMA Assistance, Les Miller, USACE, Portland District	Big Green Machines: Gresham's Path to Energy Independence, Paul Eckley, City of Gresham	Bluetooth MAC Readers for ITS: Basics and Applications in Portland and beyond, Shaun Quayle, Kittelson and Assoc.
Friday, October 15
9:30-10:30 am	ORWARN (Oregon Water/Wastewater Agency Response Network) Exercise Program, Les Miller	City of Corvallis: Journey to Sustainability, Linda Lovett, City of Corvallis	Streamlining Project Delivery Through Predictive Model, Chris Bellusci, Scot McQueen, GeoEngineers
11:00-noon	Leadership challenges in managing a large destination resort, Gary E. George, Wildhorse Resort and Casino	Proposed West Linn Solar System & N. Vancouver Ave. Bridge Replacement Greenhouse gas inventory and findings, Josh Proudfoot, Good Company	“Balch Consolidation Conduit Shaft Construction,” Scott Thibert &amp; John Fowler